

A real estate company
specializing in commercial property.

Partnered with Obermeyer Planen + Beraten.

Platinum Construction and Development is a fully licensed Florida based real estate company specializing in commercial property development. Sustaining lasting, service-driven customer relationships and a quality portfolio of properties that complement customer demand. We are committed to providing superior, value-added commercial properties that respond to the opportunities, needs and challenges in today's commercial markets. Platinum Construction and Development has developed, built and managed over 4,000,000 square feet of commercial office, industrial and business center space both in the United States and internationally.